

10 Think Big, Bigger... and Smaller

Richard E. Nisbett

Large-scale thinking is essential, but smaller interventions also have notable effects.

16 Leaving Nothing to Chance

Karin Chenoweth

High-performing, high-poverty schools show how to create the right conditions under which all kids can learn.

22 Integrated Schools: Finding a New Path

Gary Orfield, Erica Frankenberg, and Genevieve Siegel-Hawley

As a multiracial generation of children enters our schools, the lessons of Brown are more important than ever.

28 Resegregation: What's the Answer?

No Half Steps, No Equivocation

Jonathan Kozol

Insist on Excellence for All

Beverly Daniel Tatum

Connect Students to Society

Susan Eaton

Address Housing Equity

Patricia Gándara

32 The Myth of Pink and Blue Brains

Lise Eliot

Girls don't think pink, and boys don't think blue. In fact, neuroscientists find few reliable differences between boys' and girls' brains.

38 Gender-Friendly Schools

Kelley King, Michael Gurian, and Kathy Stevens

Boys and girls do learn differently, these authors say.

43 Students Without Homes

Vicky S. Dill

How can we make sure that school offers homeless children a safe place to learn?

50 Roadblocks on the Information Highway

Donna Celano and Susan B. Neuman

The digital divide is far from closed.

38

54 Dismantling Rural Stereotypes

James A. Bryant Jr.

Idyllic stereotypes obscure the poverty and special circumstances that rural schools face.

60 Overcoming Triple Segregation

Patricia Gándara

Latino students often face language, cultural, and economic isolation.

66 Another Inconvenient Truth: Race and Ethnicity Matter

Willis D. Hawley and Sonia Nieto

Practices that are responsive to the needs of students of color enhance the learning of all.

73 Opening Digital Doors

Donna DeGennaro

The Tech Goes Home program not only teaches families computer literacy, but it also puts computer ownership within their reach. Watch the video at <http://vimeo.com/5115492>.

Cover illustration by Guy Billout

Departments

Perspectives

7 Getting a Grip on the Gaps

Marge Scherer

Listen online at www.ascd.org/el.

8 Double Take

Reviews, research, and relevant reads.

Research Says...

78 Some Summer Programs Narrow Learning Gaps

Jane L. David

Low-income students benefit from well-planned programs.

Art and Science of Teaching

81 When Practice Makes Perfect...Sense

Robert J. Marzano

What kind of practice is most effective?

Digitally Speaking

84 E-Readers: Get Ready for the Revolution

William M. Ferriter

Electronic books are rapidly becoming the norm.

Principal Connection

87 Crisis as Opportunity

Joanne Rooney

A crisis can change your ways.

92 Index to Advertisers

94 ASCD Community in Action

News and resources from ASCD.

Among Colleagues

96 How Can We Improve Formative Assessment?

Question contributed by James Han. Responses by Ben Shuldiner, Ron Klemp, and Tracy Broccolino.

