

The International Journal of the History of Sport

VOLUME 27 NUMBERS 9-10 JUNE-JULY 2010

Special Issue: Encoding the Olympics – The Beijing Olympic Games and the Communication Impact Worldwide

Guest Editors: Luo Qing and Giuseppe Richeri

Preface
J. A. Mangan	1405
IOC Foreword	1407
Introduction	1409
Prologue: When West Met East through the Beijing Olympics
Luo Qing and Giuseppe Richeri	1414
Part One
Attitudes Towards China Before and After the Beijing Olympics
Luo Qing, Chwen Chwen Chen, Cinzia Colapinto, Hiroyoshi Akihiko, Hwang Yun'il and Kodama Miiko	1419
Part Two: Another Long March of the Symbolic Holy Flame – Comparative Analysis on the Media Coverage of the Torch Relay 2008
Greece: The Olympic Torch Relay in Ancient Olympia – An Ideal Showcase for International Political Protest
Roy Panagiotopoulou	1433
France: A Conflict of Values? The Olympic Torch Relay in Paris – the Mass Media were on Cue
Françoise Papa	1452
The Run-up to the Beijing Olympics in Switzerland and Italy
Chwen Chwen Chen and Cinzia Colapinto	1461
Authoritarianism, Opacity and Proxies: The 2008 Olympic Torch Relay in the Italian Media
Matteo Tarantino and Stefania Carini	1473
Germany: A German Approach to Balance and Complexity
Teresa Haberland, Anne Heyer and Laura Schulz	1490
Spain: Media Focus on the Geopolitical Issues of a Major Sporting Event
Emilio Fernández Peña and Miquel de Moragas	1501
Australia: Mediated Representation of Global Politics
David Rowe, Callum Gilmour and Thomas Petzold	1510
Brazil: Cultural Enchantment – The Beijing Olympic Games Torch Lighting Ceremony and Torch Relay: Brazil's Warm-up Coverage
Leonardo V. Boccia	1534

Japan: What Did the Torch Illuminate? A Narrative Analysis of Japanese Newspapers' Reporting of the Nagano Torch Relay I-Hsuan Lin	1549
The Construction of a Media Reality in Reporting the Beijing Olympic Torch Relay: The Case of the Beijing Evening News Feng Rui	1569
Part Three: Representing the Opening Ceremony Representing the Opening Ceremony: Comparative Content Analysis from USA, Brazil, UK and China Luo Qing, Leonardo V. Boccia, Han Chunmiao, Liu Xing, Yu Fu and Chris Kennett	1591
Part Four: Understanding the Multi-Dimensions of Mediated Olympics Spain: The Power of a Mega Event which Eclipses Criticism Emilio Fernández Peña, Miquel de Moragas, Ibone Lallana and Anna Rezende	1634
France: the Beijing Olympics 2008, Revisiting History to Build a New Future? Françoise Papa	1675
Beijing Olympics between Media, Sport and Politics: Perspectives from the Swiss and Italian Media Chwen Chwen Chen and Cinzia Colapinto	1694
The Good, the Fake and the Cyborg: The Broadcast and Coverage of Beijing 2008 Olympics in Italy Matteo Tarantino and Stefania Carini	1717
A Very Olympian Year! The Observation from Australia David Rowe, Thomas Petzold and Callum Gilmour	1739
Brazil – Beijing Changes the Way Mega-media Events are Presented: Perspectives of 2008 Beijing Olympic Games Leonardo V. Boccia, Lidia de Teive e Argolo, Paulo Roberto Leandro, Jose Figueiredo Gomes and Pedro Fonseca	1759
A Quantitative and Qualitative Analysis of Japanese Television News Coverage of the Beijing Olympics Opening Ceremony Masaki Naka and Naomi Kobayashi	1778
Mirroring the Olympic Games – The Beijing 2008 Olympic Games in the American Media Wu Min and Xu Zhen	1794
A Case Study of NBC Nightly News Han Chunmiao	1809
A Case Study of CCTV News 30 (China) Liu Xing	1816
Part Five Encoding the Olympics – Visual Hegemony? Discussion and Interpretation on Intercultural Communication in the Beijing Olympic Games Luo Qing	1824
Epilogue: Give Me Please, a Pair of Eyes with Buddha's Insight Luo Qing	1873