

The International Journal of the History of Sport

VOLUME 26 NUMBER 13 OCTOBER 2009

Special Issue: From Europe to America – Gymnastics, a Transatlantic Movement
Guest Editor: Gertrud Pfister

- Prologue: Gymnastics – Divergent European Principals and Practices and American Transformative Reactions and Responses
Gertrud Pfister 1889
- The Role of German Turners in American Physical Education
Gertrud Pfister 1893
- The German Turners and the Taming of Radicalism in Chicago
Gerald Gems 1926
- From Jahn to Lincoln: Transformation of Turner Symbols in a New Cultural Setting
Annette R. Hofmann 1946
- Our Brothers Across the Ocean: The Czech Sokol in America to 1914
Claire E. Nolte 1963
- French Gymnastics in Brazil: Dissemination, Diffusion and Relocalization
Thierry Terret and Leomar Tesche 1983
- Globalization Before Globalization: Niels Bukh and the American Connection
Hans Bonde 1999
- American Delsartism: Precursor of an American Dance Art
Nancy Lee Chalfa Ruyter 2015
- Transatlantic Traffic in Expressive Movement: From Delsarte and Dalcroze to Margaret H'Doubler and Rudolf Laban
Patricia Vertinsky 2031
- Epilogue: Gymnastics from Europe to America
Gertrud Pfister 2052