

THE INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF THE History of Sport

Volume 26 Number 10 August 2009

Special Issue: Masculinity, Sport, Politics – Nationalism, Regionalism,
Globalization: The World, Europe and Danish Association and Disassociation
Hans Bonde

Prologue: Globalization, Regionalism, Nationalism: Danish Idiosyncrasy	1307
Revolution: Danish Sport – Breakthrough
The Time and Speed Ideology: 19th Century Industrialisation and Sport	1315
Political Assertion: Rural Revolutionary Gymnastics	1335
The Gymnastics Cult: National and International Perspectives
From Hygiene to Salvation: I.P. Muller, International Advocate of Gymnastics	1357
The Devil in the Flesh: 'Captain Jespersen', Preacher of the Pure Body	1376
The Ascent of Right-wing Masculinity
The Gymnastics 'Sexual Revolution': Niels Bukh, Male Aesthetics and Homophilea	1396
Nationalism in the Age of Extremes: Taking Danish Gymnastics to the World	1414
The Struggle for Danish Youth: Fascism, Sport, Democracy	1436
Sport with the Enemy
Danish Sport and the Nazi Seizure of Power: Indoctrination, Propaganda and Confrontation	1458
Revolt: Danish Resistance to Sports Collaboration with Nazi Germany	1481
Turn of the Tide: Nordic Ideological Change	1504
Oriental Martial Arts: the World Modernity and European Youth
Return of the Ritual: Martial Arts and the Young's Revolt Against the Youth Rebellion	1523
Sport and Contemporary European Society
The Great Male Cycle: Sport, Politics and European Masculinity Today	1540
Sport, the Olympics and Politics: European Responses to Beijing 2008	1555
Epilogue: Globalization before Globalization: Denmark sets a European Fashion	1571

